ORDER REGARDING PROCEDURES FOR SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

The Court has scheduled this case for a settlement conference on November 17, 2021 at 9:30 A.M. At that time, the parties shall report to the chambers of Magistrate Judge Mark R. Colombell.

In addition to counsel, each party must have a representative physically present with the full authority to settle this action. If an individual is a named party, that individual must be personally present at the settlement conference. If a business entity (or entities) is/are involved, each entity must have a representative with full authority to settle the case on behalf of that entity physically present. For purposes of this Order, a defense representative has full authority if the representative has the authority to settle the case up to the value of the last demand by the Plaintiff(s). A defense representative should have full authority even if the representative does not expect or intend for the case to settle at the value of the last demand by the Plaintiff(s). The failure of a party to have a representative physically present with full authority to settle the case may result in the imposition of sanctions upon that party.

At least ten days before the settlement conference, not later than close of business (5:00 P.M.),¹ each party must submit a brief position statement supplementing the parties' prior ex parte* memoranda to include any procedural developments, such as updates to discovery and/or dispositive motions, and most recent settlement discussions.

Due to the ex parte nature of the settlement memorandum, it should be delivered directly to the Court's chambers (either by e-mail or by hand delivery of a hard copy) and not filed with the Clerk's Office. The memorandum will be considered and maintained on a confidential basis until resolution of the case, when the memorandum will then be destroyed. The memorandum will not be exchanged (or its contents discussed) with opposing parties or counsel by the Court without prior permission.

The Court will allot three (3) hours for the settlement conference. Therefore, the parties must be prepared to move forward in an expeditious manner during the settlement conference. To aid this process, not less than seven (7) calendar days before the settlement conference, counsel for the plaintiff(s) shall tender an offer to counsel for the defendant(s). Counsel for the defendant(s) shall respond either by accepting the offer or with a counter-offer not less than four (4) calendar days before the settlement conference. Counsel for the plaintiff(s) shall be responsible for informing the Court via an e-mail to chambers of the offers exchanged and the outcome of this process not less than three (3) calendar days before the settlement conference.²

In any case in which the Commonwealth of Virginia holds a lien against the plaintiff(s) for past medical treatment, not less than thirty (30) calendar days before the settlement conference, counsel for the plaintiff(s) shall negotiate in good faith with the Office of the Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Virginia ("OAG") in an attempt to reduce the lien pursuant to the Code of Virginia § 8.01-66.9. To ensure that the OAG has sufficient information to address the liens, counsel for plaintiff(s) shall provide the OAG with the following information not later than thirty (30) days before the settlement conference: a statement of the case, including injuries to plaintiff(s) and others, liability and damage issues, plaintiff's financial and employment status, attorneys' fees and costs, the Commonwealth's lien amount(s), other lienholders and lien amounts, and a specific offer of compromise with an articulated basis for the proposed reduction. If such negotiations prove unsuccessful, counsel for the plaintiff(s) shall notify the OAG of the date and time of this settlement conference and provide them with a copy of this Order. Should the OAG wish to participate in the settlement conference either in person or by telephone to raise any objections to a reduction of the lien, a representative of the OAG should notify Chambers not less than three (3) calendar days before the settlement conference. Further, counsel for the plaintiff(s) shall report to the Court the outcome of the negotiations with the OAG not less than three (3) calendar days before the settlement conference.

The settlement conference will begin with all parties and their counsel/representatives present. The Court will explain its role and the manner that the settlement conference will be conducted. Thereafter, the parties will be separated and the Court will meet with counsel for each side until a resolution is achieved. When an agreement is reached, the Court will be prepared to reduce the agreement to a Memorandum of Understanding, which will be enforceable upon the parties as a contract. Thereafter, the parties will have ten (10) days to complete the final settlement agreement consistent with the terms of the Memorandum of Understanding. Should the parties wish to draft their own settlement agreement at the settlement conference in lieu of the Memorandum of Understanding, they may do so, but the parties must bring with them to the settlement conference a laptop along with a thumb drive containing a draft settlement agreement.³ In all cases involving a class action or putative class action, counsel for the plaintiffs shall be responsible for emailing to Counsel should complete this form and submit it to chambers no later than one week before the settlement conference. On the date of the settlement conference, counsel shall bring a physical copy of the authorization form, signed by Judge Colombell, for inspection by court security officers.⁵

If the matter is not settled, the Court will simply inform the designated trial judge that the matter was not resolved despite the parties' good faith efforts (provided that the parties comply with the conditions of this Order and act in good faith during the settlement conference).

The Clerk is directed to send a copy of this Order to all counsel of record and to any party not represented by counsel.

It is so ORDERED.
